

City News ...In Brief

(From Schubert's Daily.)

Wool Grower Here.

Colin Campbell, the Ash Fork wool grower, is here on sheep business.

Phoenix Attorney Here.

Attorney C. F. Amisworth of Phoenix is here on professional business.

Poland Visitor.

Mrs. Mark Bradley arrived here last evening from Poland on a short visit circulating among his friends.

William Mengis is in the city from Jerome, circulating among his many friends.

Dewey Miles Here.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, C. C. Miller and A. V. Miller of Dewey are visiting in the city.

Left for Phoenix.

Attorney General E. S. Clark left yesterday morning for Phoenix on official business.

Left for Home.

Wes Jackson left last night for his home in Kirkland, after a short business visit here.

Mining Man Here.

G. H. Miller is here from his mining camp in the Copper Basin district on mining business.

Back from Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanley returned yesterday from a two weeks visit with relatives in Phoenix.

Sheriff-elect Leaves.

Sheriff-elect J. W. Smith left here last night for his home in Octave, after a three days visit here.

Home from Frisco.

Mrs. Lou Hale has returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in San Francisco.

Will Spend Sunday Here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lynch arrived last evening from the Emporia mine to spend Sunday in the city.

Left for Home.

Paul Pulliam left yesterday morning for his home in Mayer, after a pleasant business visit here.

Here on Business.

Joseph L. Howells arrived here yesterday afternoon from the Hillside section, where he has mining interests.

Former Resident Visits.

Joe Bassett, a former resident of this city, is renewing old acquaintances here after an extended stay in Nevada.

Left for the South.

Deputy Sheriff John Merritt was an outgoing passenger for the southern part of the territory on official business last night.

Admitted to Hospital.

Robert Beatty, known all over the coast as "Dusty Bob," was admitted to the hospital yesterday. His ailment is general debility.

Miss Stickney Speaks.

Upon invitation, Miss Gabriella T. Stickney, national W. C. T. U. organizer and lecturer, will speak at the Baptist church today at 11 a.m. upon "An Open Door of Blessing."

Home from the East.

M. G. Coughlin, who represents the Coliseo Sugar Plantation Co., of Vera Cruz, Mexico, and who makes his home in Prescott, has returned from a business trip to New York and Wisconsin and will be here for a few days.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Copper City Visitor.

Taeodore Humbert of Jerome is here on court business.

Phoenix Foundryman Here.

Phil Hart, the Phoenix foundryman, is here on business.

Tufa King Here.

C. D. Ryerson, the Kirkland tufa king, is visiting in the city.

Del Rio Visitor.

Ed Mahrin, the Del Rio farmer and stockman, is here on business.

Here on Business.

W. L. Roberts, the Skull valley Farmer and miner, is here on business.

Home from the Coast.

Mrs. Gorham Bray has arrived home from an extended visit on the coast.

Fools Gulch Visitor.

George L. Coleman, the Fools Gulch mining man, is here on mining business.

Jerome Junction Visitors.

Mrs. William Rhodes and daughter, Miss Cors Rhodes, of Jerome Junction, visited here yesterday, returning home on the afternoon train. Miss Rhodes will leave soon for a visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

Stockmen Visit.

Joe Rudy and Albert Rudy, Kirkland valley stockmen, are here on cattle business.

Left for Phoenix.

F. P. Cruse was an outgoing passenger Sunday night for Phoenix on railroad business.

Purchasing Supplies.

Al Vroom is in the city from his mines in the Thumb Butte district, purchasing supplies.

Mrs. J. C. Young and baby of Skull valley arrived here last evening on a visit with relatives.

(From Schubert's Daily.)

Wool Grower Here.

Colin Campbell, the Ash Fork wool grower, is here on sheep business.

Phoenix Attorney Here.

Attorney C. F. Amisworth of Phoenix is here on professional business.

Poland Visitor.

Mrs. Mark Bradley arrived here last evening from Poland on a short visit circulating among his friends.

William Mengis is in the city from Jerome, circulating among his many friends.Dewey Miles Here.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, C. C. Miller and A. V. Miller of Dewey are visiting in the city.

Left for Phoenix.

Attorney General E. S. Clark left yesterday morning for Phoenix on official business.

Left for Home.

Wes Jackson left last night for his home in Kirkland, after a short business visit here.

Mining Man Here.

G. H. Miller is here from his mining camp in the Copper Basin district on mining business.

Back from Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanley returned yesterday from a two weeks visit with relatives in Phoenix.

Sheriff-elect Leaves.

Sheriff-elect J. W. Smith left here last night for his home in Octave, after a three days visit here.

Home from Frisco.

Mrs. Lou Hale has returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in San Francisco.

Will Spend Sunday Here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lynch arrived last evening from the Emporia mine to spend Sunday in the city.

Left for Home.

Paul Pulliam left yesterday morning for his home in Mayer, after a pleasant business visit here.

Here on Business.

Joseph L. Howells arrived here yesterday afternoon from the Hillside section, where he has mining interests.

Former Resident Visits.

Joe Bassett, a former resident of this city, is renewing old acquaintances here after an extended stay in Nevada.

Left for the South.

Deputy Sheriff John Merritt was an outgoing passenger for the southern part of the territory on official business last night.

Admitted to Hospital.

Robert Beatty, known all over the coast as "Dusty Bob," was admitted to the hospital yesterday. His ailment is general debility.

Miss Stickney Speaks.

Upon invitation, Miss Gabriella T. Stickney, national W. C. T. U. organizer and lecturer, will speak at the Baptist church today at 11 a.m. upon "An Open Door of Blessing."

Home from the East.

M. G. Coughlin, who represents the Coliseo Sugar Plantation Co., of Vera Cruz, Mexico, and who makes his home in Prescott, has returned from a business trip to New York and Wisconsin and will be here for a few days.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Copper City Visitor.

Taeodore Humbert of Jerome is here on court business.

Phoenix Foundryman Here.

Phil Hart, the Phoenix foundryman, is here on business.

Tufa King Here.

C. D. Ryerson, the Kirkland tufa king, is visiting in the city.

Del Rio Visitor.

Ed Mahrin, the Del Rio farmer and stockman, is here on business.

Here on Business.

W. L. Roberts, the Skull valley Farmer and miner, is here on business.

Home from the Coast.

Mrs. Gorham Bray has arrived home from an extended visit on the coast.

Fools Gulch Visitor.

George L. Coleman, the Fools Gulch mining man, is here on mining business.

Jerome Junction Visitors.

Mrs. William Rhodes and daughter, Miss Cors Rhodes, of Jerome Junction, visited here yesterday, returning home on the afternoon train. Miss Rhodes will leave soon for a visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

Stockmen Visit.

Joe Rudy and Albert Rudy, Kirkland valley stockmen, are here on cattle business.

Left for Phoenix.

F. P. Cruse was an outgoing passenger Sunday night for Phoenix on railroad business.

Purchasing Supplies.

Al Vroom is in the city from his mines in the Thumb Butte district, purchasing supplies.

Will Visit Family.

Robert Halpin came in yesterday

the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct

(From Schubert's Daily.)

Wool Grower Here.

Colin Campbell, the Ash Fork wool grower, is here on sheep business.

Phoenix Attorney Here.

Attorney C. F. Amisworth of Phoenix is here on professional business.

Poland Visitor.

Mrs. Mark Bradley arrived here last evening from Poland on a short visit circulating among his friends.

William Mengis is in the city from Jerome, circulating among his many friends.Dewey Miles Here.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, C. C. Miller and A. V. Miller of Dewey are visiting in the city.

Left for Phoenix.

Attorney General E. S. Clark left yesterday morning for Phoenix on official business.

Left for Home.

Wes Jackson left last night for his home in Kirkland, after a short business visit here.

Mining Man Here.

G. H. Miller is here from his mining camp in the Copper Basin district on mining business.

Back from Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanley returned yesterday from a two weeks visit with relatives in Phoenix.

Sheriff-elect Leaves.

Sheriff-elect J. W. Smith left here last night for his home in Octave, after a three days visit here.

Home from Frisco.

Mrs. Lou Hale has returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in San Francisco.

Will Spend Sunday Here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lynch arrived last evening from the Emporia mine to spend Sunday in the city.

Left for Home.

Paul Pulliam left yesterday morning for his home in Mayer, after a pleasant business visit here.

Here on Business.

Joseph L. Howells arrived here yesterday afternoon from the Hillside section, where he has mining interests.

Former Resident Visits.

Joe Bassett, a former resident of this city, is renewing old acquaintances here after an extended stay in Nevada.

Left for the South.

Deputy Sheriff John Merritt was an outgoing passenger for the southern part of the territory on official business last night.

Admitted to Hospital.

Robert Beatty, known all over the coast as "Dusty Bob," was admitted to the hospital yesterday. His ailment is general debility.

Miss Stickney Speaks.

Upon invitation, Miss Gabriella T. Stickney, national W. C. T. U. organizer and lecturer, will speak at the Baptist church today at 11 a.m. upon "An Open Door of Blessing."

Home from the East.

M. G. Coughlin, who represents the Coliseo Sugar Plantation Co., of Vera Cruz, Mexico, and who makes his home in Prescott, has returned from a business trip to New York and Wisconsin and will be here for a few days.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Copper City Visitor.

Taeodore Humbert of Jerome is here on court business.

Phoenix Foundryman Here.

Phil Hart, the Phoenix foundryman, is here on business.

Tufa King Here.

C. D. Ryerson, the Kirkland tufa king, is visiting in the city.

Del Rio Visitor.

Ed Mahrin, the Del Rio farmer and stockman, is here on business.